

Literacy

- Label park scenes.
- Learn to write own name on their work.
- Listen to and retell a variety of stories based on the topic.
- During phonic lessons and writing activities, learn to hear and say the initial sound in words.

Personal, social and emotional development

- Play and work as part of a group.
- Use role play to re tell stories.
- Learn good practice and routines with regards to P.E. lessons.
- Learn and show awareness of the boundaries set and of behavioural expectations in the setting.

Mathematics

- Moves toy animals around and describe where they have gone using positional words such as behind and next to.
- Match numerals to quantities of plants, seeds, conkers.
- Counts out up to six animals from a larger group.
- Uses the language of 'more' and 'fewer' to compare two sets of animals.

Communication and language

- Use language to imagine and recreate roles and experiences in play situations.
- Include a story line in role play.
- Use talk to organise, clarify and sequence ideas about what they have seen and felt on the wellie walk.
- Is able to respond to two part instructions.

Reception Autumn Term 2017

Understanding the World

- Wellie walk to observe how the leaves and weather changes during autumn.
- Gather natural materials for art work.
- Use 2paint to create pictures of autumn and park scenes during ICT lesson.
- Observe chemical reactions - use bicarbonate of soda to blow up balloons.
- Observe nature's camouflage during a visit from a park ranger.

Physical Development

- Experiment with ways to move like different animals.
- Learn how to land safely when jumping off specific equipment.
- Use specific tools to make changes to clay in order to make hedgehogs.
- Handle tools, objects, construction and malleable materials safely and with increasing control to make paper plate animals.
- Hold a pencil effectively to form recognisable letters, which are correctly formed during fine motor skills and handwriting activities.

Expressive Arts and Design

- Use a variety of resources to make dens and places for animals to hibernate in.
- Learns and performs songs with actions and creates dances based on the themes of autumn and the harvest.